
TERM 4: Painting...till the End | Term Four, 2024

This is your chance to finish the unfinished, start the unstarted or unblock the blocked paintings in your life. Use the creative spiral process to experiment and test new possibilities in a supportive working studio. Try out new techniques such as layers and textures. Solve and evolve. You can work on your own and/or seek help from your tutor. All mediums are welcome. Suitable for all levels.

Content

- * Work through 'problems'
- * Establish routines to help develop your practice
- * Learn new techniques relevant to your preferred mediums and processes

Objectives

- * Improve your practice and ability to work through blocks
- * Use the creative spiral process, and your tutor's guidance, to achieve works you'll be pleased with

Outcomes

- * Better familiarity with how you can resolve some common issues
- * Understanding of what it means to reach the 'end' of a painting and 'time to move on' to the next

Register Here

Class Type: Block Week
Tutor: Marc Hill

Every Block Week Two (-)

9:30am - 4:30pm

Materials cost: Dependent on what you already have and what you will be needing to complete your work during the week.
Casual Students: $450.00 + material

T2.27

15 (Max number of students)

Required Materials:

Bring the materials (paints/colours, brushes, supports) you prefer to use and we'll work with what you have on the unfinished paintings you have not been able to resolve. Note - if oils are your preferred medium...please use liquin and not turps.

You can purchase your art supplies from our Materials Shop online