
Photography | Term Three, 2024

Learn photography - either digital or analogue - through creating a unified body of work that shows how your creativity and skills have developed.

Make it work for you!

We can also cover mobile phone photography for social media, how to get the best from it, as well as photography for jewellery, sculpture and painting.

Suitable for all levels.

Content

- * Camera controls, exposure, and post production
- * Darkroom Black and White developing
- * Introduction to digital media and mobile phone photography
- * Photographing your artwork
- * If it is your first term studying photography then we will avoid the technical and emphasize learning to how get good photographs whether on film - automatic or manual or on your mobile phone

Objectives

- * Understand basic camera controls
- * Essential photoshop and Lightroom skills
- * Darkroom negative processing
- * Become more fluent with how to get a good photograph

Outcomes

- * Understand basic camera controls
- * Essential photoshop and Lightroom skills
- * Darkroom negative processing
- * Become more fluent with your camera and lenses and evolving good photographs

Class Type: Mains Class

Tutor: Marc Hill

Every Wednesday (29 Jul - 13 Sep)

9:30am - 4:30pm

Materials cost: Dependent on what you have, and the scope of your project.

Casual Students: $630.00 + material

G1.16 Photography

12 (Max number of students)

Required Materials:

- * Camera - either mobile phone camera, digital or analogue
- * Negative film - either black and white or colour
- * Please note - we don't develop colour on-site

You can purchase your art supplies from our Materials Shop online

Register Here